

K-Love is the only radio station that I feel safe playing with my family in the car. It lifts me up and motivates me. If they were not there, the community nor I would have any other listening alternatives. I pray that you will find a way to keep them on the air. Thank you and God Bless.